sharing your opinion about this product! Other Tidbits The software installs a "Start" button on your desktop. The software installs a "Help" button on your desktop. The software installs a "Help" button on your desktop. This website is totally safe for children. These are the safest Internet browsers. There is no way your child will be able to open the links. Of course, there is a "Settings" button that you can use to allow some links (not all). However, the links are safe and no one can open them or download them. We have good news for parents too. You can request that links be blocked. To do that, log in to the Preferences section, click on the link "Blocked links". Then the screen to the right allows you to choose which links to block. You will also be able to view your child's history to see what links he or she downloaded. Thus, in case your child accesses a link and it is naughty, you can catch it before it happens! This software is also easy to use. At the very least, you don't need to know HTML codes to use this Internet browser! The browser itself is really easy to use, as well. It has an easy-to-use wizard. You should be able to install it and get your child started on the Internet with minimal problems. The software has a child-safe app launcher. It's pre-installed on all the browsers. What's New In?

NetDino is an Internet browser for children of all ages. Its content is up-to-date and child-safe. The safety settings are very sophisticated and will continuously be enhanced for your child. An essential advantage of the NetDino Internet browser is that it downloads the links directly from the NetDino server. These are divided into 5 categories and (currently) 2 languages. Through this technology NetDino is able to update the links directly and remains up-to-date! As you might expect, the safety settings are password protected. Through its many settings the software can also be adjusted to the child's age. The safety setting options are very sophisticated and will continuously be enhanced for your child! The links are monitored constantly and immediately deleted in case of a breach. You can make suggestions for additional links on the homepage. You can define your own homepage. Thus, your NetDino Internet browser always remains up-to-date and child-safe! There are a great deal of setting options for safety and operation. User reviews: (1) Personally Im not a family and my son just discovered the internet last friday and its our new favorite thing to do together! Posted by JustDana on 3/25/2006 Very cool browser, but... I have to give a bit of a negative review. This has been a really cool browser for our son, but I had to deactivate it this weekend because it was too intrusive with the videos and commercials. As well, it is EXTREMELY slow to load pages, and VERY slow to go from page to page. Also, it acts like a pop-up blocker, and never works! We are really considering just changing to a different browser unless the issues with that are fixed. Posted by Xo3 on 3/7/2006 Great program I got this when my daughter was 3.5yo...and since then she has LOVED it. She asks for it when we go on the net, and I don't hesitate to say yea, it'll be faster online. It's pretty responsive on my Windows XP MBP (512 MB RAM), and totally lacks any "slowness" issues that might be common. My only complaint is that the browser doesn't have an option to "not populate my home page with links I've already added from the app" (or whatever the description is). I'd give the program a 5
