Ta'Kar has just declared war against the Federation forces in a new frontier known as the Shattered Isles. So far the Federation, with its handy weapons of war, has had a good start, razing the cities of Ta'Kar one by one, crushing their resistance forces. Somewhere in the middle of a conflict like this, you are thrust into the front lines to stop a war that does not want to end, and with the Federation forces closing in, you have to unite your forces and fight for the liberation of Ta'Kar. The Shattered Isles is the starting point for one of the largest sandbox campaigns seen to date. Aside from the normal scenarios you can experience a 'King of the Hill' where you can fight in a new map, in an attempt to claim the title of the King. You can also take part in the Shadow war where you can get involved in the conflict between the two factions and help your team choose the best strategy to dominate the area. A new faction is added to the game, the "Klingons", expert and experienced fighters. The Klingons also have a new weapon, the Prowler. A fully upgraded version of the Mobility Schedule. Gameplay with this DLC For gameplay with this DLC you have to register to the multiplayer server. You can then log on using the character name and the character password. If you have not registered previously and created a character using this DLC you will have to register with the server and send an activation mail to your address you registered with or choose another character. The multiplayer includes new maps, new weapons, new achievements and much more. You can also play the single player campaign with this DLC. Do you prefer an archer over a warrior? A scholar over a berserker? Do you love to stay hidden in the woods and hack enemies to pieces with your bow instead of being the lifeblood of the battle in the front lines? Then you are the perfect match for an ultimate weapon, the Thunderlord, capable of unleashing a hail of destruction on the battlefield! Gameplay with this DLC The Thunderlord is a Heavy Bolt gun. It boasts a heavy rate of fire and a high damage output. Its preferred fighting style is the Rambo route, with a heavy emphasis on suppressing and healing a unit, and throwing grenades for extra support. Federation Fighters is a new weapon To support your usage of an advanced weapon your Federation

What's new in The Old Empire Multiplayer:

Based on the game mechanics and user base (augh, remember when Civ 4 was called the “RTS every other game was copying”?) I don’t expect many have even heard of The Old Empire, the multiplayer game originally envisioned to be in the engine from which the singleplayer game would emerge, and announced in the middle of 2005. Actually, not so much of me either, as it’s been a long time in the making. But people who play it around these parts all seem to really dig it. I played with a few last year and got hooked on the game. Been playing it more lately on Google’s new plans and have to say, it’s really not bad. They’ve got a work in progress here. Needs a lot of balancing, and many bugs, and some of my favorite menu screens are gone, and there’s a UI you have to work a bit to get used to (unlike in SMAC). But with the team things will get better. I’d love to be able to play with a bunch of other folks. I wonder, though, when they’ll get started on the truly great multiplayer game that The Old Empire, i.e. the one people have been wanting for years. In case you haven’t guessed, that’s the one where you can actually get in some sort of argument about whether the Pope, the leader who sits on top of the Resistance’s hierarchy is (or is not) actually the Antichrist. And it turns out, that’s not his only clone in the resistance at all. This is a good way to find out what you think of The Old Empire: Subscribe to the game by email (sign up at the website) and get an email every time there’s a new post. Send them to me at author@tomeviking.com. I’ll respond right away. Otherwise, I’ll wait until the other day, and just send to you. I’ve read a lot of unofficial lore descriptions that put the Resistance at 11, and they think the Pope is a clone, which makes sense given that SP and MP operate in a parallel universe, but I just saw something on the Old Empire site that said the Resistance is 12, having sent two apostles to Slaver’s Echo, and the Pope is now one
