Metropolitan Atlanta Transit Authority The Metropolitan Atlanta Rapid Transit Authority (MARTA) is a county-wide transit authority that operates bus and rail lines throughout the state of Georgia. The five-county service area includes DeKalb, Gwinnett, Henry, Rockdale and Clayton counties. MARTA is the third-largest mass transit agency in the United States, behind the New York Metropolitan Transportation Authority and the Bay Area Rapid Transit District in California. History For much of its history, MARTA lacked an official name. In the early 1970s, a group of civic leaders chose the name Atlanta Regional Transit Authority (ART), but it was never officially adopted. In December 1974, six local county governments that already operated transit systems adopted a single-county transit agency. From 1976 to 1980, MARTA conducted a 10-year study on urban mass transportation issues in the Atlanta metropolitan area. The study led to a series of decisions to improve transit within the MARTA service area. The final decisions were adopted by vote of the MARTA Board on November 7, 1980. For political reasons, the agency's name is written with capital letters. Most other mass transit authorities across the United States are lower-case, and MARTA is the exception. In 2015, the agency opened the Sprewell Transit Center, a transit hub in Northwest Atlanta that provides connections between MARTA and the Atlanta Streetcar. Current service areas MARTA offers service to the following regions: Metropolitan Atlanta Atlanta Hartsfield International Airport and Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport BeltLine (formerly ATL Commuter Rail) Georgia World Congress Center and Five Points MARTA Station Hartsfield MARTA Station and the downtown interchange with the Atlanta Streetcar Marietta MARTA Station and the downtown interchange with the Atlanta Streetcar Midtown MARTA Station Peachtree Center MARTA Station Sandy Springs MARTA Station Perimeter Center MARTA Station Morningside MARTA Station and the downtown interchange with the Atlanta Streetcar Roswell MARTA Station Perimeter MARTA Station Sandy Springs MARTA Station Gwinnett County Briarcliff MARTA Station Dacula MARTA Station Duluth MARTA Station McDonough MARTA Station Savannah MARTA Station Sandy Springs MARTA Station Suwannee MARTA
